Allies Capture Lens. Foe Flees From Albania

Lens, the heart of the great coal region in northern France, and Armentieres, almost equally important as a manufacturing centre, have been evacuated by the Germans; and the German fortified positions between Cambrai and St. Quentin have been definitely smashed. Across the border in France the capture of Armentieres brings Lille, the capital of the department of Nord, within striking distance, and the evacuation of Lens places Douai, the fortress northeast of Arras and Menin, virtually in the hands of the British. To the south from Cambrai to St. Quentin, the German resistance is still strong, but the British, Americans and French on all these sectors have valiantly attacked, smashed the old Hindenburg line and materially advanced their lines.

American, British and Italian warships have destroyed the Austrian naval base at Durazzo and the warships anchored there. The attack on Durazzo occurred at noon on Wednesday, when Italian and British cruisers, protected by Italian and allied torpedo boats and American submarines, started in making their way through mine fields and avoiding attacks by submarines, got into Durazzo harbor. An intense bombardment followed until the base and the Austrian ships anchored there were completely destroyed. Italian sailors, in the teeth of a hot enemy fire, torpedoed an Austrian destroyer and steamer. Another vessel, which was recognized as a hospital ship, was allowed to withdraw. British and Italian airplanes co-operated in the work. Other Italian and allied warships were drawn up in order of battle outside the harbor to deal with any enemy warships coming up to the assistance of the port. No losses nor damages were suffered by the allied squadrons, except a slight injury to a British cruiser by a torpedo from an enemy submarine.

Durazzo is a seaport in Albania, fifty-three miles south of Scutari. It is situated on a peninsula in the Adriatic sea. For some time past it has been a base for Austrian operations in Albania.

The Case For Thrift

The case for thrift in Canada at the present time may be briefly summed up. The country has been in a state of unexampled prosperity for the past two or three years, owing, it is quite clear, to unusual war conditions. Wages have been high, profits are large and there is a total absence of unemployment. Very many workers are earning more than ever before and thousands are wage-earners for the first time. With all this prosperity and the fact that they are not accustomed to judicious disposal of their money, many spend their entire surplus seemingly on the assumption that this prosperity will go on forever.

The appeal now is to the people of Canada to immediately undertake a vigorous campaign of personal thrift, to abstain from the purchase of all luxuries and non-essentials, and to endeavor to accumulate as great a saving as possible. Naturally many people will say they are now living as economically as they can, and that their standard of living has actually been lowered owing to the high prices of articles of food and clothing. This may be true, but it does not alter the fact that there is still much extravagance and that this exists to a dangerous degree when we remember the temporary character of the prosperity and the perils of the period of readjustment that will follow peace.

The practice of thrift by the Canadian people now will bring a large accumulation of national savings to secure us individually and collectively against any trying change that might occur in the economic situation. It would make possible the continuance of Canada's splendid part in the war and the maintenance of our war financing on its present sound basis. The elimination of luxuries and non-essentials would, as a matter of fact, release labor and material for war purposes instead of using these great and scarce necessities for things that we could do without.

The examples of other countries should inspire Canadians to much greater effort in thrift. France has been able to face her four years of terrible trial by reason of her lack of personal thrift. Great Britain is practicing it as perhaps never before. The United States is fast piling up vast sums of money for the use of her own and the other armies of the Allies. Canada has done much to finance her own part in the war, but no one can say that the limit of saving has been reached or even approached.

A substitute for gasoline is reported by a New Yorker, which develops a higher horsepower and can be produced at 35 per cent. less than the cost of gasoline.

Mrs. Francis Lote, of Hillcrest, and Mrs. E. Eckmiller and children, of Blairmore, have returned home from a visit to the coast.

Facetious Fragments

The American dude who goes to France and reads the impressions of that land reads a thing that is discovering anything new. One is reminded of this by going back through the old times of English literature.

He finds there the astonished exclamation of Addison to the effect that even the little children in France are able to speak French fluently, and going a little farther, he gets these verses of Tom Hood's, which easily may have been written by a truck private from the United States in the present year of grace:

Never go to France
Unless you know the lingo,
If you do, like me,
You will repent, by jingo!
Staring like a fool,
And silent as a mummy,
There I stood alone,
A nation with a dummy.
Chaises stand for chairs,
They christen letters Hilles,
They call their mothers tures,
And their daughters filles.
Stange it was to hear—
I'll tell you what's a good 'un—
They call their leather queer,
And half their shoes are wooden.
Signs I had to make
For ever-little notion,
Limbs are going like
A telegraph in motion.
For wine I reeled about,
To show my meaning fully,
And made a pair of horns
To ask for 'best and bully.'—Ex

Anglican Services

St. Francis' Church, Hillcrest

Sunday, September 30th, was observed as a Day of Thanksgiving for Harvest at the above church. Evening service held at 8 p.m., with the usual Harvest Hymns and an appropriate sermon by the Rev. H. Clay, incumbent of the parish. The attendance was one of the largest since the opening of the church, and those who took part will probably long remember the occasion. The church was very beautifully decorated by members of the congregation, and splendid donations of fruit, flowers and vegetables were afterwards forwarded for the use of the patients at the Frank Sanatorium. Services are held in this church on an average twice a month (winter months excepted) and the next service will be at 8 p.m. on October 20th.

Anglican Church, Blairmore

Thanksgiving Service will be held in this church at 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, October 6th. The subject of the address will be "First Fruits and Ingathering."

The Cadet Wing Review

The Cadet Wing Review is one of the latest additions to the literary productions of the war is responsible for it. It is published at Long Beach, Ontario, and Cadet-Sergeant Leslie Edward Reid is managing editor. The opening editorial says: "As to the aim of our publication, (and in all seriousness we think we have a distinct service that we can perform), we should, besides linking the men of the Cadet Wing together, bring parents and friends into more intimate touch with our surroundings. Judging from some of the inquiries we have been receiving, the Review will find its way into homes throughout the Dominion, and into not a few of the States of the Union. If mothers and sweethearts can enter fully into the atmosphere of the training camp and can come into closer touch with those in whom they are interested, we think the existence of The Cadet Wing Review is fully justified."

Remember the Thanksgiving service at Central Union church on the evening of Sunday, October 13th, and the social evening at supper on the Tuesday evening following. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 for 50 cents. See notice elsewhere in this issue.

It Isn't Your Town; It's Yours

If you want to live in the kind of a town like the kind of a town you like. You needn't slip your chains in a grip and start on a long, hard hike. You'll only find what you're looking for. For there's nothing that's really new. It's a knock at yourself when you leave your town—

It isn't your town—it's yours.
Read towns are not made by men afraid. Let someone get ahead!
When every one works and nobody shirks. You can raise a town from the dead.
And if when you make your personal stake. Your neighbor can make one, too.
Your town will be what you want to see. It isn't your town—it's yours.
—G. P. McQueen, Calgary.

The marriage of Miss Annie Nemrava, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Nemrava, of Blairmore, to Mr. Matt Malina, of Edmonton Liberty Stores, was solemnized on Monday last by the Rev. W. T. Young. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, where a select party of friends had assembled. Following the ceremony, the party sat to a sumptuous wedding luncheon, served under the able direction of Mrs. W. Cross. Mr. and Mrs. Malina will make their home in Edmonton.

Dad Crane's application for divorce from The Enterprise has been granted. Dad united himself with this great institution about seven years ago and as one of the school kids remarked, "grew up with the community and us," and during all that time people in this isolated nook in the mountains profited more or less by his "type." Mr. Crane was a printer long before there was a Western Canada defined on the map of the world, and has seen the rise and fall of many victims of the publisher's profession. He is now approaching the allotted span of three score and ten and is feeling somewhat the weight of his years, and has decided to move to a more congenial clime, where amid rest and pleasure his days may be longer in the land of his nativity. He leaves on Sunday morning for Portland, Oregon, where he will establish a little home for himself, near where a daughter of his resides.

TO every home there comes a time when every thought, every hope, every prayer for the future centres on the recovery of one loved one. In that hour of anguish, every means to recovery is sought—the highest medical skill, trained nurses, costly treatment. Does the price matter?

It may be so great as to stagger the imagination—a sum beyond the possible.

But does anyone ask, "Can we do it?" Money or no money, they do it. And some how they pay.

It may mean doing without things they think they need. It may mean privations, sacrifices, hardships. They make unbelievable savings, they achieve the impossible, but they get the money to pay.

To-day in this critical period of our nationhood, there is imperative need for MONEY—vast sums of money.

Only one way now remains to obtain it. The nation must save, every community, every family, every individual Canadian must save.

If anyone says "I cannot save" let him consider to what extent he would pinch himself to relieve the sufferings of a loved one at home; and surely he would not pinch less for our fighting brothers in France.

Without suffering actual privations, nearly every family in Canada can reduce its standard of living, can practice reasonable thrift, can make cheerful sacrifice to enrich the life-blood of the nation.

You who read this, get out pencil and paper NOW. Set down the items of your living expense. Surely you will find some items there you can do without.

Determine to do without them. Start TO-DAY. Save your money so that you may be in a position to lend it to your country in its time of need.

It was the luck of a collie dog to which it had scrambled from to tumble into the big mine cave at Frank on Sunday last. It took several hours before the rescue party could extricate the animal from its perilous position on a crumbling ledge, to safety.

BUILT for war-winning work, with roomy accommodations but with no waste space, nor unnecessary weight. Model 90 stands out strikingly as a car which completely measures up to most conditions today.

Its energetic motor gives ample power for any emergency. Its fuel consumption is surprisingly low.

In fact, it is just the right car for you right now.

Back of it is a real Canadian institution fortunately prepared to care for all service and parts requirements now and later.

Since the Americans arrived in Europe the Huns are continually seeing Stars.

Having money is often the expression of saving grace.

First Red Cross Worker: "How is it that the Huns never bomb your hospital?"

Second Red Cross Worker: "We have it camouflaged to look like a brewery."

Canadian losses up to August last were 115,503.

Sir Thomas White, Dominion minister of finance, will shortly visit Western Canada.

Pat Burda recently purchased two hundred head of best cattle at a price of $200 per head.

Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Young returned on Saturday last from a visit to Edmonton and Millet.

Rust from iron crosses is said to be responsible for German failures on the battlefields.

A Thanksgiving Supper and Concert will be given at Hillcrest on Monday, October 14th.

Nine thousand Toronto homes have reported to the fuel commissioner that they are absolutely without coal.

Because motoring to the church might be considered joy-riding, the services on Sunday last were not well attended.

The coming attractions to the Blairmore opera house include "The Sign of the Cross" on October 8th and 9th, and "The Price She Paid" on October 12th.

Contributions of Bibles, magazines, books and smokes, collected by the Daughters of the Empire, are being shipped to the Frank Military Hospital from High River.

Angus MacDonald, of Coleman, paid $175 and costs last week for having allowed a couple of "thirteens" to drink booze in his livery barn. In the event of his not being able to raise the above sum, he was offered free board for a few months at Lethbridge. He said the story.

The second of a series of dances being given by the local Returned Veterans' Club, for the purpose of raising funds for the sending of Christmas parcels to relatives of Blairmore folks with the allied fighting forces overseas, will be held at the opera house on Tuesday night next. The first event was well patronized and a crowded house is expected for Number 2.

A French-Canadian and a Jew were opposing Notre Dame Cathedral in Montreal. The former recently raised his hat and the latter did the same. "You know what that says?" said the French-Canadian. "Dat say de cathedral Notre Dame."

"O, excuse me," said the Jew. "I thought it was the Bank of Montreal."

Kissing through a handkerchief has been recommended by the New York board of health, and is a favorite pastime in Macled. It may be alright, but sounds as if it might be something like washing your hands with your gloves on. Up here in the Crows' Nest Pass some folks have got into the filthy habit of kissing through the telephone or plate glass.

Since the outbreak of war, France has lost 2,000,000 head of cattle. Those remaining are greatly reduced in weight and increasingly larger numbers of them have to be killed to produce the same weight of dressed meat.

After investigation, the Canada Food board has come to the conclusion that the rubber bands used on preserving jars, infected with phenol, do not harm the fruit, and that any fruit preserved in such jars must not be destroyed. The objectionable odor and taste will disappear after 24 hours exposure to the air, leaving the preserves perfectly suitable for human consumption. There is no need to destroy any such fruit, as it has not been harmed.

Save for Victory.

The war department at Washington has 9,000 women employees.

Very few people are suffering from Spanish influenza in Blairmore. Some people have a grain for such novelties, but this one does not seem to appeal to them.

When you have nothing else to do, you should call on some busy friend and occupy an hour of his time telling him how to run his business. He will appreciate your kindness and will never forget you. That's a fact!

A few enlisted. He was so good looking and intelligent, the recruiting officer asked if he would not like to take a commission. He replied that as he had no idea how many Germans he would kill he would prefer a straight salary to a commission.

The Western Canadian Coal Mines Association will hold their second annual dance at the Blairmore opera house on the night of Thanksgiving, Monday, October 14th, the proceeds of which will be given to the widow of the late Donald McKay, who died at Lethbridge.

We understand that the railways are stay away from council meetings just because an admission fee is not charged. They have got in to the practice of paying admission to picture shows, circuses, barber shops and other entertainments that they feel the productions of our aldermanic senate is just as worthy of patronage.

Special Notice

Monday night, October 14,
Thanksgiving Night, the

"Two-Soul Woman"

The Show will start at 8:45.

Don't Forget—15 Minutes to 7.

There will be only one Show as the Dance starts at 8:30.

Don't Forget To Be On Time

Some folks around the prairie town play Rummy for a few chips a corner and have decided to institute a "Rummy Week" in which the entire take-off will be used to purchase smokes for the patients of the Frank Military Hospital. Dollars will be raised so fast by this means that it will be necessary for the patients to take treatment from the free air tank at the Blairmore Hardware Co. to ensure wind enough to draw these smokes to a finish.

Romeo Rinaldi and Patsy Malet were down from Calgary during the week to engage in harvesting Blairmore crops. Both boys are now representatives of the big Canadian push that is knocking the 'Y' out of the Kaiser, and someone has said that Romeo is being sent over with special instructions to administer the long-looked-for final punch that will drive the prince of devils to his eternal destiny swifter than if hit by a cannon ball.

The High River Times says: "M. B. Dawson, of Cluny, was in High River on Friday last on a business trip. In the district where he is located are many new settlers who bought the land at a government land sale in 1917. The newcomers are a thrifty, hospitable class of people, and despite the short crop this season they are making preparations for 1919 with about 12,000 acres in his own immediate district. Recently the Elfin school district was created with Mr. Dawson as secretary and one of the trustees."

E. F. Hahel was a business visitor to Lethbridge on Tuesday.

Clinton Carlson has purchased a new six passenger Overland from the Blairmore Hardware Co.

A cake of eggs collected from the people of High River, has been received at the Frank Military Hospital.

COLEMAN TOWN BAND—Music for Dancing. Any number of players supplied. Apply to G. Beddingford, secretary.

Miss Rae Seigel, who for the past twelve months or so has held the position of stenographer in the office of Mr. J. E. Gillis, has resigned to join her parents, who are moving from Michel to the States.

The annual meeting of the local branch of the Red Cross Society will be held in the Oddfellows' hall on the evening of Monday, October 7th, at 8 o'clock. Following the regular business a musical programme will be rendered. Refreshments will be served and a collection taken for the Prisoners of War.

HAY! HAY!—Baled Upland Hay, good quality. Also Oat & Wheat Feed, etc. Bottom prices, try us. We can arrange free freight for miners, etc., with cattle. Government free freight application forms on hand. PATTERSON, McKINNON & BELL, Union Bank Chambers, Lethbridge.

Roy Kinsner, Arthur Ennis, Joseph Howe and George Patton left for Calgary on Sunday night, where they hope to join the R.N.W.M.P. Siberian force. Quite a number of citizens were at the depot to bid the boys "good luck." The two latters have already seen service in Europe and returned home last year, and have since been eager for the opportunity of again venturing out for a rap at the Kaiser.

The attention of the Canada Food Board has been called to the practice frequently adopted by licensed dealers in apples, turnips, potatoes and other fruits and vegetables of having men living in different parts of the country acting as their agents, buying or contracting for such produce, superintending the loading of same on cars ready for shipment, and receiving a commission from said dealers for such work. All such agents operating in the manner mentioned, without first having secured a license from the Board, are doing so contrary to the Order dated 13th day of December, 1917, wherein it states: "On and after the 1st day of February, 1918, no person shall deal wholesale in fresh fruits or fresh vegetables, without first having obtained a license from the Food Controller," and in violating such order are guilty of an offence and subject to a penalty not to exceed $1,000.00, and not less than $100.

Partridge in general, even, however, a voice is now a virtue; indeed, it is expected of you.

Patches in war-time are often an evidence of patriotism.

There are many people who praise God from whom all blessings flow and never proceed to wash them.

Saving brings its own reward compounded.

The Titanic people have built up a great military machine and are trained and armed to duty themselves. In the allied nations the Titanic is left largely to the individuals.

The mind of a young man of freedom is your willingness to deny yourself as the strength of the nation the world will be increased.

Noted—don't make the fate of money-saving—truth.

It is far cheaper of us to say how much patriotic ardour, and more, and we will make by making money, by "doing nothing," as they say, but we will not be able to see any and the nation's strength.

Fellow Canadians!

"YOU who spend as much or more on your enjoyment—who indulge in as many of the good things of life as you ever did—who you buy what you want to, eat what you fancy, go where you please—who deny yourselves nothing—how much real thought do you give to the winning of the war?"

"You know what we have to put up with. Do you think we could stand it all—the homesickness, the untold misery, and the terrible fighting—if we dreamed 'over there' that you were trifling with this war, that you were spending money on frivolous things?"

"Don't you see that every time you spend a dollar on a thing you don't really need you are using the labor of a man who should be either fighting or making something that will help us—your soldiers—to fight?"

"Oh, you chafe with money in your pockets and comfort in your homes and love of ease cankering your souls,—if you could know as I know all that war means, you'd stint yourselves down to the bare necessities, so that Canada's money and Canada's material and Canada's labor could all go into guns and shells and equipment for our boys in France to fight with!"

As a precaution against the Spanish "Flu," a friend of ours suggests frequent doses of prohibition rum, whiskey, brandy, gin, lager beer or champagne, taken in the order named, but not too far between. In this way $10 a day will keep the "flu" away.

J. F. Hunter, who has been a resident of Blairmore for about nine years, part of which time as pastor of Central Baptist church, and for the past several years connected with the local customs office, received word this week of his promotion to the head provincial office at Calgary. Mr. Hunter will move to Calgary the latter part of the present month.

A grand Hollowe'en entertainment will be given in the Oddfellows' hall, on the night of Thursday, October the 31st, under the auspices of the Canadian War Contingent Association. A play will be staged, entitled "There's not a man in the house," and a grand Hollowe'en luncheon will be served, for which tickets are selling at 75 cents.

Henry Walter, the popular night porter at the Cosmopolitan, who has the enviable distinction of possessing bigger feet than our own, sent to the Robert Simpson Co. a few weeks ago for a couple of pairs of waterproof number twelves. Although the wherewithal accompanied the order, only one pair was unloaded from the special freight train on Sunday morning, and Henry attributes the delay to a car shortage.

Blairmore Pays Tribute To French Veteran

Soldiers seldom talk, except among themselves, and that is chiefly about where they have been or what they have been doing. The stories from the front line are nearly all of the same more or less dangerous places where we meet death at every corner, or more or less glorious fighting, but always of the same destructive work done by the Germans without any strategical reason save their purpose to destroy all the life and future of the country. Burnt and blown-up villages, trees cut close to the ground, is part of the glorious work done by the Germans when they retreated in 1917 along the Somme and the Aisne, where I was in the division just next to the British. We stopped about a mile and a half from St. Quentin, a town which has been retaken by the Allies within the last week. I would have too much to say, as I have been all over the front from the Somme to Switzerland, that is to say Somme, Aisne, Soissons, Chemin des Dames, Champagne, Verdun, Les Eparges and Alsace. You will perhaps understand what Verdun was like in 1916, where the Germans started an attack with 2,000 guns of all calibres on a ten-mile front, and you will realize how dangerous it was if I tell you that three miles behind the lines was the dangerous curtain-fire drawn by the Germans with the 8-inch guns, through which the French went every day, leaving 10% of their men. I will not say anything of our defence with the 75 "wonder" guns as it is known already all over the world; but despite their big attack the Germans DID NOT get through and left five hundred thousand of their men on the fields. I will now conclude, thanking you all for the kindness you have shown me and will never forget the send-off given to me by the Veterans and Citizens of Blairmore."

The Bellevue orchestra was in attendance and rendered several pleasing selections, while Messrs. J. B. Smith and E. Green, the Misses Williams and Mr. E. Kerr added to the vocal and instrumental part of the programme. The meeting was also addressed by Rev. W. T. Young, Mr. A. Hamilton and Lieut. C. Kerr.

Luncheon was served towards the close by the ladies of the Red Cross, and the meeting closed with rousing cheers for France and Private Koenig, and the singing of the "Marseillaise" and our National Anthem.

Pte Burton Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Robinson, formerly of Cowley, but now of Victoria, B. C., is reported seriously wounded in action.

Sam Zappler Flurried

Sam Zappler, proprietor of the Liberty Stores at Edmonton, Frank and other points, was attacked by a bandit in Edmonton early Thursday morning and received several bullet wounds, one of which entered his chest with fatal results. He was removed to a hospital, where he died about eight hours later. A policeman, who attempted to capture the murderer, was shot dead. It is reported that a man named Cameron has been arrested and is charged with the double crime.

Harvest Festival

The Thanksgiving Service in connection with the above church was held on Sunday evening, October the 6th. The church had been previously decorated by the members of the congregation and presented quite a pleasing appearance. Foliage in all its fall beauty was tastefully arranged and growing plants in full bloom lent an added wealth of color. A crowded congregation assembled for the occasion and the singing throughout was bright and hearty. The Rev. H. Clay preached an appropriate sermon on the subject, "First Fruits and Ingathering." The fruits and flowers so kindly donated were afterwards sent to the Frank Sanatorium, and a letter of thanks for the same has been received.

Central Union Church

The annual Harvest Thanksgiving Service held at Central Union Church on Sunday evening last was very largely attended. A splendid display of fruits, vegetables and flowers adorned the rostrum, while evergreen and fall foliage lent splendor to the surrounding walls. An appropriate sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. T. Young, and special music was rendered by the choir. The Thanksgiving supper and social, which was to have been held on Tuesday evening, has been postponed indefinitely. The service on Sunday evening next will be dedicated to the memory of the late Capt. David Fraser, who was a member of the congregation.
